Rel Infra gets safety award

ANIL DHIRUBHAI Ambani-owned Reliance Infrastructure has been awarded "safety innovation award" for its 500-MW coal-based thermal power plant at Dahanu in Maharashtra. The award was given by the Institute of Engineers for the current calendar year at a Safety Convention organised by them. "The Dahanu Thermal Power Station, commissioned in 1995, has been recognised by the institute as best performing coal-based power station in the country for its operational excellence, environment management, quality, safety and corporate social responsibility," Institute chairman, Mr S.S. Yadava said in a statement.
